

Backgrounder/Fact Sheet

MidPen Housing was founded in 1970 by a small but influential coalition of Silicon Valley entrepreneurs, Stanford University faculty and other community leaders who were concerned over the lack of affordable housing on the San Francisco Bay Area peninsula. Since then, MidPen has greatly expanded its reach and is one of Northern California's leading non-profit developers and managers of affordable rental housing with a robust and diverse portfolio.

Mission

To provide safe, affordable housing of high quality to those in need; to establish stability and opportunity in the lives of residents; and to foster diverse communities that allow people from all ethnic, social and economic backgrounds to live in dignity, harmony and mutual respect.

Organization

MidPen consists of several distinct corporations working closely together to promote and achieve the MidPen mission. The three primary corporations include:

MidPen Housing Corporation drives all of the development efforts including property acquisition, planning, design, construction, historic renovation and existing property rehabilitation. It also houses all administrative functions: Finance, HR and IT.

MidPen Property Management Corporation provides professional property management for our own developments.

MidPen Resident Services Corporation provides and coordinates onsite support programs to help our residents advance which include: computer and vocational training, academically-based after school programs for youth, financial literacy classes, health and wellness programs and community referrals.
