

SHIRLEY CHISHOLM VILLAGE

FAMILY HOUSING

San Francisco, CA

Shirley Chisholm Village is MidPen's first development in San Francisco, and will provide 135 affordable rental apartments with preference for San Francisco Unified School District educators and district employees. It is the first educator housing community for the City and County of San Francisco and the San Francisco Unified School District (SFUSD). It is one of only a handful of educator housing developments in the state.

Shirley Chisholm Village is named for Shirley Chisholm, the first black woman elected to US Congress and the first woman to run for the Democratic Party's presidential nomination. Before becoming a Congresswoman, Shirley Chisholm was an early childhood educator.

Just like her namesake, Shirley Chisholm Village is a pioneering project and model for affordable housing for educators. It demonstrates the commitment to collaboration between the City and County of San Francisco and SFUSD, and utilizes best practices for development. Shirley Chisholm Village will welcome residents in fall 2024, and serve a broader range of income levels, up to 120% of the City of San Francisco's Area Median Income.
